A Parent's Guide to Pre-School

Wish It
Dream It
Do It

Our Philosophy:

We understand that your child comes to us with unique experiences, interests and learning styles. Our goal is to truly know your child well and use this knowledge to guide, support and motivate him or her. We believe that good teaching requires continual professional development, personal reflection and collaboration. We value parent involvement at every level and encourage you to partner with us to give your child the most powerful and joyous learning experience possible.

Behavior Expectation:

We have high expectations for the students in our classrooms. We expect the students to achieve academically to their fullest potential. We expect students to contribute in a positive manner to our classroom. The following is a list of rules for S.C.A.

1. Show respect
2. Make good decisions
3. Solve problems

Crayon Chart

We will be using the "Crayon Chart" system to help monitor these behaviors. You will receive info daily.

Homework

Your child will be given homework each Monday for the week. This completed homework packet is due back to school on Friday. It will reflect the skills that we are covering. If the homework appears to be too difficult or too easy for your child, feel free to modify it. We do not punish children who don't return their homework, but we often reward those who do.

Look what I can do!

Newsletter:

We want to make sure you are informed of upcoming events and what your child is learning in school. A weekly newsletter will come home, but your child's work will come home daily. It will contain schedules and information pertinent to the coming week.

About Us:

We are an experienced staff who enjoy working together. We have been together for a number of years. Ms. Maria has been teaching preschool age children for 14 years. She has been at Solano Christian Academy for eleven years. Ms. Maria has three adult children and five grandchildren. Two of her grandchildren previously attended S.C.A. and have great memories.

Remember

We are in constant communication and are very committed to providing your child with the best possible school experience. It is going to be a great school year!
